CAN'T SIT STILL

A rock'n'roll show for adults and kids

For fourteen years the Pip Simmons Theatre Group Ltd has created music and theatre. For CAN'T SIT STILL it has assembled musicians, faces from the group's past and new discoveries to make a pantomime for today. All these grown-ups, now entering their second childhood, will be creating rock theatre of a different kind.

There exists a curious British custom, which is the annual telling of the tale of Peter Pan — the boy who never grew up. The Neverland of the story may be nearer to home. Children are no longer "gay and innocent". Which fairies do the glue-sniffers and child rioters believe in?

And Neverland doesn't exist only in the fantasy of children, because it is we adults who draw the map of it in their minds.

"I'm the kid who can't sit still never did and never will doctors say
I must be ill ...

... 'cause night or day
I can't sit still I've got time to kill time to kill but I can't sit still"
